- You are a positive, highly motivated self-starter who takes initiative, eagerly contributing to the success of the WLGW forum.
- Can keep the good of the community ahead of the wants of an individual, and willing to close conversations that veer away from helpful discussion.

General Description:

The Forum Leader for Weight Loss, God's Way is responsible for moderating, enhancing and guiding discussions within the WLGW online community. This role involves fostering a supportive and encouraging environment, ensuring that discussions align with the values and mission of WLGW. The Forum Leader will also facilitate conversations, provide guidance, and support members in their health and faith journeys, helping them stay committed to their goals.

Accountability:

The Forum Leader reports directly to the Customer Experience Manager and works closely with other WLGW team members to ensure a cohesive community experience.

You're skilled and excel in the following areas:

- A deep faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, with a strong foundation in the Bible as the infallible Word of God, and a commitment to prayer.
- Proven experience in moderating online communities, with a focus on creating a positive and supportive environment.
- Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal, with the ability to engage and inspire community members.
- Strong organizational skills, with the ability to manage multiple discussions and community activities simultaneously.
- Familiarity with online forum platforms and tools, with the ability to quickly learn new systems if needed.
- A passion for health, wellness, and helping others achieve their God-given purpose through a supportive online community.
- Experience in conflict resolution and maintaining a respectful tone in all interactions.

Job Duties and Responsibilities:

- Lead and moderate discussions within the WLGW forum, ensuring that conversations remain positive, supportive, and aligned with the values of WLGW.
- Welcome new members and guide them in getting started with the community, helping them feel comfortable and supported.
- Facilitate weekly discussions on various topics related to health, faith, and wellness, encouraging active participation from community members.
- Monitor the forum for any inappropriate content or behavior, taking action to address issues in line with community guidelines.
- Provide guidance and support to members, helping them stay committed to their health and faith goals.

- Collaborate with the Customer Experience Manager and other team members to develop strategies for increasing engagement and fostering a vibrant community.
- Organize and lead special events or challenges within the forum to motivate and inspire members.
- Report on forum activity and member engagement, providing insights and recommendations for improving the community experience.

Compensation:

This is a volunteer position, but it comes with excellent perks, including:

- Comprehensive training to enhance your skills as a Forum Leader.
- Complimentary WLGW membership, granting you VIP access to many of the WLGW programs.
- A complimentary book of the month to further your personal and spiritual growth.
- And lots more perks designed to enrich your experience and support your journey in faith and wellness.

If you are passionate about health, wellness, and faith, and you love connecting with and supporting others in an online community, we encourage you to apply for this rewarding role!
